In the meantime ...
PRAY DAILY!

Prosopon School of Iconology
presents a 6 day workshop in the traditional Russian-Byzantine icon writing method

Taught by Master Iconographer
VLADISLAV ANDREJEV
Assistant
TATIANA GUBENKO

MAY 18—23, 2020
(MONDAY—SATURDAY)

SHRINE OF ST. ANTHONY

MAY, 2020

(The above icon, "The Theotokos, The Sign" is for Intermediate and Advanced students)

This workshop is open to ALL LEVELS! Students create the icon using ancient techniques of egg yolk and wine to make the egg emulsion.

Applying hand ground pigments and clay to carved wooden boards, using pure 24k Russian gold leaf to create the halo and background, students learn the 22 contemplative prayer steps to write the icon.

Beginning students start with Archangel Michael unless Vladislav makes a different choice. Returning students will be assigned an icon based on their progress/level of experience.

You will spend each day learning this ancient practice coupled with lectures of the theological and philosophical basis of each step.

Christian symbolism is discussed within the icon along with the meanings and values of the colors used.

There is much to learn!

Please bring a notebook with you to class along with a camera as you will want to photograph each step of your progress and note of important aspects of writing your icon.

All workshop materials and supplies included in the $900.00 fee for BEGINNING students though many find it irresistible to purchase extra brushes, clay, DVD's, books and Prosopon Journals which are indispensable should you choose to work on your spiritual journey at home—until the next class! We hope you will join us— this world needs more prayer and the beauty of your icon will reflect those prayers.
